Aloha from Maresa

Say Aloha! Send editorial & advertising inquiries to info@lhmhi.com

We are so pleased to welcome you to the holiday issue of Luxury Home Magazine!

Each time we put an issue together, an unintentional theme reveals itself. We may notice similar property styles, locations, or even price points. Of course, market trends will dictate a lot of these, but other times the theme is just a happy accident, which is the case with this issue. It's time to celebrate the holiday season with a lighthearted spotlight on a symbol of hospitality and aloha: the pineapple. We've scoured every image in this issue and found the total number of pineapples pictured throughout. Sure, you will see them styled on the countertops of inviting kitchens, but we've also seen them pop up as furniture, light fixtures, and accessories. Want to join the fun? Spend some time perusing the pages in this issue and return to the bottom of this page for the answer we found. (Hint: look to the right!)

A pineapple search provides the levity we all need, but we are sincerely grateful for your involvement with Luxury Home Magazine—whether you are a reader, a Realtor, or another industry professional. Mahalo for letting us share our ohana with you, and we hope to learn more about you and yours in the coming years. Cheers to a warm holiday season and a bright New Year full of health and happiness!

Mahalo,

It is no accident that Rockefeller chose this very place to realize his vision. As he surveyed the length of the coast he selected the two most perfect beaches, but also the land with the most character. He recognized the opportunity to create golf courses and homesites with expansive views and a benign climate that were unique to what would become Mauna Kea Resort. Hapuna Estates homesites sit privately along the 6th, 7th and 8th fairways of Arnold Palmer-designed Hapuna Golf Course. Owners may choose to join the Club at Mauna Kea Resort and enjoy both the Hapuna and Mauna Kea golf courses, along with the renowned amenities of two of the best luxury hotels on the island.
