Welcome to a Po'ipū coastal masterpiece. Warm, inviting, spacious, forever ocean vistas and customized with you in mind. This exceptional contemporary waterfront residence offers elegance, privacy and space for yourself and visiting guests, with the ease of a close-the-door-and-go lifestyle. In the main house, a stylish open-plan living, kitchen and dining space allows for a party of 2 or many. A wall of sliding glass doors open to vast ocean perspectives, an ample covered lanai and chic swimming pool and spa. Spacious rooms on either side of the main home present sweeping ocean views—use both as bedrooms or dedicate one to an office retreat. The additional dwelling provides guests with a supremely private escape complete with kitchen, living, dining, laundry and bedroom areas. Dogs welcome: this home features a pet bathing facility. Fly in for a few days or stay year round in this haven of relaxation.
