HUMMINGBIRD CAY

Exuma, Bahamas | 236 AC
10 Dwellings | $35,000,000

Crisp early morning sitting on the deck observing the Milky Way, Stars, and Planets, so brilliantly expressing themselves. A daylight 20-minute hike through "Sunburn Blvd," where you wind up barefoot on the secluded and luxurious miles of untouched white sand and aqua hues. This may have been the experience Arnold Bernhard, founder of ValueLine, and his family generously shared for over 70 years with those who could only dream of the mirage felt by actually being on Hummingbird Cay. The 236-acre private island embellished with herbal Strongbark tea trees, medicinal plants, sealife, and natural habitat is waiting for you.
