Renowned contemporary architect Olson Kundig designed this hillside pavilion residence to take full advantage of the southwest-facing slope of this homesite. Perched above the Orchard, the panoramic ocean views are prominent beyond the home's lush tropical landscaping. A private and elevated passage entry leads to a great room, opening to the outdoors from every angle. The unique layout of the 4 private suites is ideal for extended family or guests, as well as a home office or gym. Expansive outdoor living spaces invite you to swim, relax fireside under the stars, or dine alfresco as the sunset paints the sky. A truly modern perspective ready to welcome you home.
