Aloha from Maresa

Say Aloha! Send editorial & advertising inquiries to info@lhmhi.com

We struggle with the right words to express our sadness and empathy for the people and animals affected by the August fires. Nothing we say can take away the pain and experience, so we offer our ear, our shoulder, our support as Maui takes each next step.

At Luxury Home Magazine Hawai'i, we are doing what we can to support our community by supporting the Hawai'i Community Foundation and through our existing relationships with Rotary and the special fund they have established. Throughout the state, our partners may be facing serious headwinds from health challenges to economic and financial losses. We will continue to work on behalf of our partners and readers to share and educate about available listings and services.

We will all get through these difficult times, and together we will be stronger in the future.

Mahalo,

Maresa Giovannini

Mr. Nisbet understood the magic of the ocean and designed for views from almost every room; a large courtyard accommodates parking for the many guests who will want to enjoy the ocean views & sounds with you.

Modern New-Builds with Classic Design

Your style—whether the clothing you wear, the car you drive, or the artwork you collect—is a reflection of you. And your house is no different. In some regions of the country, architectural style is singular. But in Hawaii, you'll find traditional single-family homes, sprawling ranches, kama'aina and plantation styles, modern construction, or a blend of historical design with current sensibilities.

Those blends, like the one featured here, are identifiable by sleek, clean lines, minimalist elements, and traditional details. The principle of modern design is that form follows function. So instead of ornate details like those on a Victorian painted lady, you'll find neutral colors, basic shapes, and streamlined details. Modern home decor follows suit with neutral or muted colors, linear patterns, and understated textures.

Put your own spin on modern style with a story in your next home, today. ♦

THE DOUBLE HOMESITE WITH ONE-OF-A-KIND HOUSE PLANS. $3.95M
SEVEN BEDROOMS / EIGHT FULL BATHS & THREE HALF BATHS

For Hapuna Estates, obtain the Developer's Public Report for a Condominium required by Hawaii law and read it before signing a binding sales contract. No federal or state agency has judged the merits or value, if any, of these properties. This does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of any offer to buy where prohibited by law.

AT THE BELOVED MAUNA KEA RESORT

Considered the most sacred of the island's five volcanoes, Mauna Kea's summit is the highest in all Hawaii. Quite naturally, ancient Hawaiian law reserved visits to the peak for only the highest-ranking nobles. In keeping with this tradition, the most spectacular property at the resort is at the highest elevation, on the golf course, with expansive ocean views. Express your interest in this double homesite, which is offered with visionary architectural plans.
